

State of New York

Executive Chamber

Proclamation

Whereas, the citizens of New York State appreciate and join in observances that acknowledge those special relationships that enhance our lives, including ones founded upon the unique bond that exists among siblings; and

Whereas, the experiences that brothers and sisters share are a cherished source of memories that last throughout one's lifetime; and

Whereas, the love among siblings is enduring and passed on to future generations who nurture and preserve the precious legacy bestowed upon them; and

Whereas, the observance of Sibling Day provides a wonderful opportunity to reflect upon the bonds of friendship and love that thrive among brothers and sisters, and New Yorkers take the time to express heartfelt gratitude for the unique relationship that siblings celebrate each and every day;

Now, Therefore, I, David A. Paterson, Governor of the State of New York, do hereby recognize April 10, 2008 as in the Empire State.

G i v e n under my hand and the Privy Seal of the State at the Capitol in the City of Albany this second day of April in the year two thousand eight.

David A. Paterson
