

Dana Gold, Parent, Chappaqua

It is outrageous that teachers need to be sidelined from their work to teach to a test. They are forced to be more concerned with their own outcomes than the needs of the specific student. Please trust local school districts to evaluate their teachers in the manner they deem most effective.