

Lisa Hutter, Parent

"I am opposed to the mandatory testing because it is used primarily to assess teachers. The students don't get any benefit at all and in fact it could be the opposite. To have a third grader sit through 6 full days of testing is abhorrent when it doesn't count for anything but the state's own edification."