

Elana Rosenzweig, Parent

"please keep the common core curriculum.... it's finally beginning to work. To change it now would ruin any chances of consistent learning for children who have been adapting to it for a few years. It would be horrible to switch to something else now, without giving this program a proper chance of working."