

Patrick Smith, Parent

As a parent I think the CCLS are very unfair and do not apply to common sense. There are skills being asked and unfairly tested at inappropriate levels for students. Students should not cry and hate their schooling due to these standards, but that is exactly what the standards are doing!