

Suffrage Parade, New York City, 1911

Women's Rights Alliance of New York State

Save the Date!

Women's Rights and Justice
in New York State, Past and Present
November 1-2, 2019 Syracuse, New York

New York State is the birthplace of the women's suffrage movement in the United States and has remained in the forefront of women's rights ever since.

The Women's Rights Alliance of New York State continues that legacy.

We are the people who have organized women's rights conferences for the past three years in preparation for the centennial of women's suffrage in 2020. We bring together historical sites, organizations, and people for the purpose of promoting the history of women rights in New York State, how that history has impacted women's rights throughout the United States, and how it sets the stage for continuing the unfinished work of women's rights.

Caroline Gahano Parker Mt. Pleasant,
Wolf Clan, Seneca

Mary Talbert, President,
National Association of Colored Women, 1916-1920

Young girl sitting with Susan B.
Anthony statue, Rochester

If you would like to present a panel or workshop, email a brief description of your topic and yourself to

info@wransys.org

Due May 15, 2019

We are particularly interested in hearing from presenters about:

Celebrating Suffrage, 2020

Race, class, and culture in the women's suffrage movement.

Sustaining women's rights

after 2020