

Russell Alonzo, Parent

"Stop the excessive testing of our school children. In fact, stop interfering all together in high performing school districts...clearly we are doing something right as we spend far less per student than inner city schools and yield far better results!"