

Vivian Badagliacca, Parent, Mount Pleasant Central School District

I believe that testing is important for children. I believe that you are preparing the children for the entire year for the NYS ELA & Math exams. My daughter experienced severe anxiety in preparation for the exams. She felt that the exams were tricky and difficult. Why are we pushing our children to the limit ? These exams are not necessary for the student and the added pressure for our teachers.