

Chris Cevallos, Parent, Ardsley Union Free School District

"The overall program does not consider any room for kids with special needs, and with kids that do not have any special needs, which is building anxiety in our kids. I believe we should focus in the early years of our children on the love of education. thank you"