

Lisa Cohen, Parent, Croton Advocates For Public Education

"Croton Advocates for Public Education is supporting a cessation in assessments linked to CCLS until a fully funded implementation occurs.

Teacher evaluation linked to standardized testing should cease immediately.

Every Common Core Learning Standard should be developmentally appropriate and recognize ELS students and special needs students may need additional support.

All CCLS linked assessments should be fully funded so districts can really use them as learning tools."