

Marianne DiNardo, Parent

It's a shame that a piece of paper can hold so much power. It holds the power to intimidate, discourage and pressure our young children. It holds the power to intimidate, discourage and pressure our dedicated educators. When will someone listen to the parents, children and educators? Please put an end to it.