

MaryEllen Elia, NYSED

It comes down to the system is a total farce. It does not evaluate student or teachers on their successes in the classroom. CCLS do not give solid direction or purpose to the content areas and are unrealistic and ridiculous. NYSED and our local and state governments have failed to serve and educate our students properly. Big changes are needed in education, and CCLS is NOT the answer. I'm embarrassed to be part of it.