

Leif Johnson, Parent

We used to be one of the best states for education... used to be. Such a sorry state of affairs. It's like NYS is an lawyer trying to cure cancer by removing the patient's head. Meanwhile there are thousands of effective doctors trying to tell him that his method is actually more harmful to the patient all the while wondering why a lawyer is operating on someone in the first place.