

Gary Karlson, Teacher, Riverhead Central Faculty Association

"Any test that doesn't drive instruction for my students holds no value to me as an educator. The link between these inappropriate tests and a fair evaluation of my job performance is not acceptable to me as a professional or a parent. My child will not participate until a more transparent system is in place."