

Judith Keneally, Teacher

"I appreciate the Common Core Learning Standards and see a huge difference in the depth of my students knowledge as the years pass. However, the way the students were introduced was a disservice to many students. There is no reason why they could not have been phased in a year at a time."