

Drlucy Leone, Parent, Bryan Hills School District

"The common core has been a hugely expensive and time consuming burden on the staff in our district. Our teachers & administrators are bright & our monitoring system works. The administration in every school responds appropriately to parents concerns & needs of each student."