

Maria McDonald, Parent

"My daughter is in Kindergarten, I went to college and I can't even understand half of her homework or tests. It's outrageous! Attached is a sample of what her teacher said is wrong. One of the worst feelings in the world is to have a 5 year old crying to you, when you yourself don't understand why it was wrong. It MAKES no sense. This is just ONE example, there are many more."