

Lauren Miller, Parent

"All submitted testimony should be made public. Very few will get to have their voices heard at your meetings. However, the submitted testimony is no less important. When the period for submitting testimony is completed, please post so all who are interested can "hear"."