

James Moran, Levittown School District

"Good Afternoon,

I am very concerned of the common core and math issues statewide specifically Algebra 2. In our district the statement was made that this math is hard in the beginning , and we believe that any of the new common core aligned tests have been curved and meant to fail our children what is the state doing to address this?"