

Tiffany Prasad, Parent

I would like to urge the task force to advise against the use of standardized test scores in teacher evaluations. I believe history has shown that standardized testing is not a useful measure to determine the students knowledge let alone evaluate a teacher based on it. We don't want our teachers teaching to a test, we want them teaching our children in the most effective manner possible. Thank you for your consideration.