"When you schedule listening sessions 72 hours before their start time, and think you'll have the desired turnout, your mistaken. What this looks like to me is that you wish to appear interested, when in fact you're hoping people won't show up so you can write your own narrative and draw your own conclusions.

We have Opt Out and this year it will be 500K. This way you'll get our message and we won't have to participate in your charade. Your little NYSED toolkit will do nothing to stop the tsunami that's coming."
