

Rose Rowland, Parent, Hendrick Hudson High School

"Common Core limits the creativity of teachers and does not improve school standards. I particularly find the common core standards, as related to English, to be stultifying and destructive of learning. Please reconsider putting all kids into standardized, rote boxes."