

Kelly Sfarra, Parent, Byram hills

"I am concerned that the excessive state testing forces our district to "teach to the test". A good portion of the curriculum is focused on practice testing, and eliminates any creativity or freedom of choice that teachers used to have. My kids are NOT enjoying learning. Elementary school, while teaching core basics, should still be fun. It's not anymore."