

Michael Ziolkowski, Parent

I send my kids to Canada for high school to avoid the State of New York's corrupted and underfunded schools. Donors and privateers who wouldn't dare spend a week in a "failing school" wish to monetize education and cut taxes. A system of not-age-appropriate and dynamic standards and tests has been created which are designed to break the system so it can be rebuilt top-down in the image of Walmart and increasing inequality. Disgusting.